

PR Internship in New York City!

Company provides diversified public relations and marketing communications services to entertainment, lifestyles, special events, corporate and not-for-profit clients.

From their roots on Broadway, the company has built a distinguished reputation for over 20 years among the leaders of Fortune 500 companies, entrepreneurs, producers, studio executives, celebrities, and artists for executing effective campaigns and consistently exceeding our clients' goals.

Interns are involved with all aspects of the publicity campaigns implemented by the company, from development of strategy, to writing and creation of press materials to pitching and working events, as well as helping find clips and doing research. Interns are active members of the company and have the opportunity to work closely with experienced publicists.

Like any internship, administrative support is expected, though the opportunity for you to shape your own internship exists greatly. You will have the opportunity to work on all projects, ranging from Broadway and Off-Broadway shows, events, and human-interest stories on a range of clients.

Candidate profile:

Applicants must demonstrate a passion for the work, excellent manners and strong communications skills. Social Media and Internet research skills are a must. The ability to pick things up quickly is very much appreciated, as is taking ownership of your projects. An attention to detail is also a very important part of the job.

Start: June 2020
